THE DAILY BULLETIN.
FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 28, 1884.

OREGON's official vote is: Blaine, 26,851, Cleveland, 24,593, Butler 728, St. John, 488.

THERE is a rumor abroad that Butler has not been fully paid for his deal with the Republican National Committee.

CHARLES S. VORHEES, a son of Senator Vorhees, of Indiana, has been elected a delegate in Congress from the Washington Territory. He wiped out a Republican majority of about three thousand.

REV. DR. BUCHARD, of the three R's fame, asked in a sermon on Sunday why he wasn't in heaven. It is just possible that there is some Blaine Republican ready to declare that it is because the reverend doctor can't get there.

A RECOUNT of the vote for Brand, Democrat, and Leman, Republican, candidate for the Legislature in Illinois, shows that the former is elected, thus securing a Democratic Legislature on joint ballot and the election of a Democratic Senator.

THE Lone Star, always politically radiant, contributes a particularly brilliant lustre to the Democratic firmament this year. In 1876 Texas gave Tilden 60,000 plurality. In 1880 Hancock carried the state by 93,000 plurality. This year Cleveland will have at least 115,000 majority over Blaine.

Ir men cannot do business without taxing the people to help them they had better quit and let somebody else who can have a chance. The principle of forcibly taking the money of one man to pay another man for doing business is wrong. Tariff reform in the right spirit will correct this outrage.

The business outlook of the country is much better now than a few weeks ago, when the best interests of the country were menaced by Blaine's possible election. There is not the slightest doubt that his election would have precipitated a panic. The truth is that the bold business men of the country were afraid of him.

It is a noticeable and very significant fact that the only mills and industries shutting down throughout the country are those most "protected." The cause is over-production, which results from enormous profits made by the unnecessary tariff tax taken out of the pockets of the people and put into the pockets of the protection barons through the Republican tariff law. It is time for this robbery to cease.

SINCE the election that Blaine newspapers have been engaged in a crusade against the preachers. Their especial grievance against Dr. Burchard is not yet satisfied, but in New Haven the local Blaine organs have stirred up public sentiment against Rev. Thomas R. Bacon, who is a republican but voted against Blaine. Mr. Bacon has been forced to resign. Evidently the Blaine republicans imagine they can scare the ministers as badly as they frightened the colored people.

There is strong evidence not only in the cities but in the manufacturing centers that Republicans are endeavoring to create the impression that the election of Cleveland will tend to hard times harder. The leading Republican papers are straining every point to magnify the commercial difficulties and the distress among manufacturing enterprises, and they are finding willing instruments in their work in many of the manufacturers themselves. It may safely be predicted that this will prove to be a short-sighted policy and will fall absolutely of the purpose intended to be reached.

The election of Cleveland can have exercised no influence on the manufacturing or commercial interests of the country up until this time. Nevertheless in all sections manufacturers are reducing the wages of their employes and giving out the fraudulent and fictitious reason that the election of Cleveland compels action. When a business house fails the Republican papers charge that the same cause is responsible for it, and the gloomy refrain which they sing is taken up in chorus by the disappointed politicians on the street corners. But they are sowing to the wind in this foolish manner and will reap the whirlwind.

The indications are that the approaching winter will be one of hardships and distress for poor people. Wages will be low and work scarce. But if Blaine had been elected the result would have been the same. When the winter is over, however, and the springtime comes, business will revive and the very effrific which republicans are now making to depress it will then turn to the advantage of the incoming party. With Cleveland's inauguration economy in administration will aid the reviving trade to make business blossom with prosperity. During the winter of distress surpluses will be reduced and at its conclusion all interests will be buoyant with hope and revived with the certainty of a fostering and sustaining hand in power.

(CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—A Chicago clergyman, in attendance at the Plenary Council at Baltimore, has been appointed to succeed Cardinal McCloskey of Chicago, who will be selected as Cardinal McCloskey's successor, and that his name will be announced in a few days.) Support of this view is said that the Pope has given his full support to the cardinal's efforts in spreading the Catholic faith throughout the West and Northwest. The name of Archbishop Gibbons, of Baltimore, is also in connection with the position. It is thought that the new Cardinal will be named by the Pope before the Council adjourns.

THEftes at Umbrella-Menders.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—A Chicago clergyman, a member of the Ursuline order, has been accused by the Methodist Episcopal parsonage that they carried away two fine gold watches and a sum of money belonging to the family of Rev. Robert McIntyre. Search was made in the parsonage, but nothing found, but later the officials at Oakland telegraphed that a company of tramping umbrella-menders had been arrested and the property found on them. The vagrants were brought here and to jail, and a court is now in session short work will be made of them.

JUDGE creates a Sensation.

ANGOLA, Ind., Nov. 28.—Judge McBride, in his opinion on the case of the Negro, who was sentenced to death for the larceny of a horse, held that the law relating to larceny on electric cars, and instructed that judgments be promptly returned against every person guilty of wagering money on the result of a race.

Martins are in bad shape in the Hocking Valley, Ohio. Governor Hoody has concluded to call out the militia. A dispatch says: "The miners can take their choice of being starved out or shot down by the soldiers."

Ir敬的是Dr. Franklin Pierce, of Worcester, Massachusetts, who applied kerosene oil to the throat and breast of Mary A. Beaman last January, from which the woman died, will have to suffer the penalty of man-slaughter.

DR. WILSON, of Westport, Indiana, has arrested a number of persons in this city, and under the Methodist Episcopal parsonage that they carried away two fine gold watches and a sum of money belonging to the family of Rev. Robert McIntyre. Search was made in the parsonage, but nothing found, but later the officials at Oakland telegraphed that a company of tramping umbrella-menders had been arrested and the property found on them. The vagrants were brought here and to jail, and a court is now in session short work will be made of them.

BUSINESS is steadily improving in this city.

The Lexington reservoir has a capacity of 100,000,000 gallons.

KANAWHA River is rising and a small run of coal may be looked for.

The Lexington Soap Factory is turning out 13,000 pounds of soap per week.

There is a small supply of nut coal in the city. It sells for fourteen cents a bushel.

THANKSGIVING day was generally observed in this city and passed away very satisfactorily.

Don't fail to attend the Thespian Entertainment to-night. The performance is to be repeated by general request.

Do not forget the protracted meeting to begin at the South Methodist Church Sabbath evening. Dr. J. Young is to assist the pastor.

DANGEROUS counterfeit silver dollars are said to be in circulation. They date of 1884, and have a clear and almost perfect ring.

SLEEPY merchants make a sleepy trade every time. The wide-awake tradesmen who advertise inevitably offend a rushing business.

A TOBACCO barn belonging to Frank Collins, near Lexington, was burned to the ground on the 26th inst. It contained seven acres of tobacco.

On account of the finality of Rev. Mr. Garrett to be present, the meeting announced for this evening in the M. E. Church will be indefinitely postponed.

MR. HENRY GREEN, conductor on the K. C. R. R., resigned his position this morning. He was one of the most polite and obliging officials on the road.

TRIM your grape vines before the wood freezes. You have more time now than in early spring, and it is better for the vines. Any time after the foliage drops and previous to hard freezing weather, will answer.

The Mountain Girl has been withdrawn from this trade. Parties interested in Kentucky River navigation are at Cincinnati with the intention of buying her provided she can be secured on satisfactory terms.

The Lexington Press states that the Breckinridge Club, of that city, the first political organization in the South to attend a national convention since the war, will attend the inauguration of President Cleveland, whom it saw nominated at Chicago.

DEVOX, the weather prophet, says: "I will venture to predict that there will be more brilliant sunsets, and the sky will be redder than last year every cold spell this fall and winter. When we have a brilliant sunset the wind will shift to the south and it will grow warmer, and three days after it will rain."

MASTER HENRY LUD HAMILTON, aged nine years, fell into the river from one of the coal barges at the elevators, yesterday afternoon and would have drowned except that Charles Walker, a colored man, who happened to be near, jumped into the water and saved him. Master Hamilton will hereafter keep away from Morehead.

To pay a wage made on the recent Presidential election, Mr. William Carr will to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock wheel Mr. T. A. Keith in a wheelbarrow from the coal elevators to Mr. Keith's home in the lower part of the city. The procession will be headed by a fife and drum. Everybody is invited to turn out and witness it.

DR. HENDERSON says: "Yesterday was a gay day with us. My church people and dear friends of other churches commenced pounding us from early morn to dewy eve," and the Doctor cried out, "Lay on McDuff!" The full pantry today tells the tale. "Go thou and do likewise," saith the powdered pastor to other churches.

PERSONALS.

Miss Ida Lee is teaching a class in elocution at Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pierce returned to Cincinnati this morning.

Miss Ollie Bland is the guest of the family of Mr. George Burrows.

Miss Lizzie Lloyd, of Lexington, is the guest of Mrs. John Lloyd, of this city.

Mr. Henry Schwall and Miss Frances Lang were married at Ripley this week.

Mr. Robert Stivers and Miss Belle Tyler, were united in marriage at Ripley, O., on Thursday evening.

The Owingsville Outlook says: Mr. Thomas Watson, formerly of Mayaville, and a very popular commercial trader, has removed his family to this place, where he will make his headquarters in the future.

Last Thursday night Sanford Carpenter and Miss Elsie Smith, both residents of Millersburg, were married at the Galt House, in Louisville. They are now on a trip to Missouri to visit the groovin's relatives.

The Thespian entertainment at Neptune Hall, last night, was successful beyond the fondest hopes of its originators. The hall was packed and crowded with an audience of our most critical people and many were unable to secure even standing room and had to be turned away. The stage arrangements were perfect and there was not a hitch until in the entire performance. The first play was "Rain and Fair Weather," a beautiful little drama translated from the French for this occasion. Finished elegant, it received a charming rendition by Miss Anna Morgan, the Baroness, and Mr. Thomas R. Phister, the Stranger, while Miss Maggie Burrows and Mr. William Wood, as Victoria and Anselmo, added much to the pleasing effect of the play. The next play, "Perfection," was warmly applauded throughout. Miss Sallie Daugherty as Katie O'Brien, looked lovely and played exceedingly well. Mr. Thomas R. Phister acted Charles even better than the Stranger and Mr. G. T. Hunter, as Sir Lawrence, represented to perfection the elderly bachelor. As Susan, Miss Bettie Coons was very pretty and her acting was quite graceful, and Mr. Frank Mannen did very well as Sam. The performance concluded with "Thirty minutes for refreshments," a langorous farce played by Messrs. Dudley Sadler, Thomas Pogue, Harry Curran, Will Sutherland and Miss Maggie Burrows, Bettie Coons and Jessie Morgan, who brought down the house by their happy hits. By general request the performance will be repeated to-night, and those who failed to see it last night ought not to miss it if they wish an evening's hearty enjoyment.

What Pretty Women do.
[Whitehaven Times]

Women with pretty teeth open wide their mouths when they smile. Women with pretty hands like to shake hands with their friends. Women with pretty eyes look you straight in the face. Women with pretty eyebrows and hair like to comb them on the flor. Women with pretty arms like to stand with the elbow skin-burnt. Women with a musical laugh fill the air with silver-sprayed tones. Women of modest manners quickly display their rich crimson blusher. Women with well-arranged forms are advertisements for their dressmaker.

It is utterly impossible for even a successful Presidential candidate to feel as important as is a boy in a suit. It is also to be regretted for the last time.

"What time is it, sonny?" asked a gentleman boy on an Austin street car. The boy smiled, and looking at his astronomical time pieces, replied:

"Do you want the exact time?"

"No, just about the time."

"In two minutes it will be three minutes to a quarter past three," replied the young man.—[Texas Siftings.]

In clothing alone, a capable writer has said, the American people could save $150,000,000 yearly, and yet get really more useful and more attractive garments.

The difference in expenditure between this and other nations in this respect is very large, and it is evident that the whole of the difference goes to secure better clothing or more attractive clothing.

About as much, at the least, this people spends in drinking and smoking at times when there is not even a desire to be seen, and only a fondness for worship with alcohol, timidity.

If the people can save $200,000,000 within a twelve month, without the sacrifice of any real desire, except the desire to keep up appearances, to "be in the fashion" and to "look as others do, the larger sum will be easily used, would go far to prevent suffering.

Fashions in False Hair.

The front hair is arranged in lightcurls or waves, in the style most becoming to the face.

Front coiffures, made of waves, and in different styles, are becoming a regular article of wear among some ladies having as many as a dozen, that they may have a change for every day in the week.

The fall and winter styles for ladies' hair dressing are very becoming. The hair is slightly wavy and looped in gracefulness, on top of the head, the figure eight being the favorite style for ordinary wear, a few light curla fringing the nape of the neck.

Ladies who think it becoming may add a long wave curled about two inches in front, falling gracefully on the shoulder so as to be seen from the front; another short wavy curl pinned over the long curl so that it ends at the stop at the neck. This is quite new and looks well on a long neck.

The Victors and the Spoils.
[Lexington Transcript.]

Judge G. M. Thomas, United States Attorney for Kentucky, and a very strong Republican partisan, was met at the "Phoenix" Hotel by the reporter, who was en route to Mayaville.

"Well, Judge, what do you think of the recent election?" asked the reporter. "It is pretty bad; but you fellows won! But I expect we will beat you in 1885."

"Because your leading men will go in too brash and make mistakes."

"What do you think of the Republican officeholders holding over by tenure of the civil service rules, under Cleveland?"

"That is all I know; it amounts to nothing; the Democrats have won the race fairly, are entitled to offices and should have them. All terms end with the administration, and it is right. A President is responsible for his administration, and it is his duty to remove all the vicious men from his office."
